Bible Teacher Interprets Islam as the “Cloak of Antichrist”

Enumclaw, WA—As the United States approaches the tenth anniversary of the September 11, 2001, attacks, Jack Smith releases biblical evidence for who he believes was really behind the tragedy. “Satan uses Islam as a ‘cloak’ to hide behind,” he states. “And the Bible predicts the rise of Islam.”

The author has studied Bible prophecy for some thirty years. After the events of 9/11, he began to study the religion of Islam. As he did so, he was astounded to discover how Islam fulfills many end-time Bible prophecies. He realized that he would be disobedient to God if he didn’t share this knowledge with others, so he started a blog. He wrote under the pseudonym of Jack Smith in order to minimize his personal risk. In spite of his precaution, his life has been threatened for proclaiming the truth.

After meticulously researching Islam’s history, key people, and beliefs, Mr. Smith put his findings into his new book, The Cloak. He explains how Islam fulfills the biblical prophecy of a false religion that will gain dominion over the entire world in the last days. “Satan hides behind Islam in order to wage holy war against the world and Christianity,” he says. According to Smith, this holy war will encompass the entire earth, including a wearing down of Christianity, a trampling of Jerusalem, and Islam’s eventual dominion of the world.

The author also explains how Islam is connected to the Antichrist and who the Antichrist will be. “When Christians are aware of how Islam fulfills Antichrist prophecies,” he says, “they can be prepared and strengthened for living in the last days. The Cloak reminds readers that God remains in control in spite of the coming tribulations and persecutions of his church.”
